CORAM : DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

June 6, 2006.

P.C. :

A suit for eviction on the ground of bonafide requirement has been decreed. The original landlord thereafter expired and during the pendency of the appeal, the legal heirs of the landlord who were brought on record filed an application for amendment of the plaint which has been allowed. The Learned Additional Distrtict Judge has noted that the amendment only sought to elaborate upon the bonafide requirement. The application for amendment has been justifiably allowed. The order of the Additional District Judge does not suffer from any jurisdictional error and cogent reasons have been given for allowing the amendment at the appellate stage. No case for interference is made out. The petition is accordingly dismissed.
